SUMMARY

I am an up and coming talent who is making quick strides in the industry. From leading/supporting acting roles to modeling with big brands, I am excited and eager to work on projects I am passionate about.

My name is Alexander Slack. I am a 25-year-old talent based out of NJ/NY with a passion for performing and storytelling through acting.

As an actor, I have appeared in lead and supporting roles in films and TV shows. I have a wide range and can take on the characters I play with real emotion and physicality.

As a model, I have experience on runways, commercials, photoshoots, and live events. I am always jovial and professional when modeling for the brand I represent.

I am confident in my abilities and love what I do. Upon request, I would be more than happy to provide an audition tape and look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Alexander Slack
